

Dog and Sausages

"Asking the justice system to reform itself was like tying up a dog with a string of sausages."

From the former vice-president of Guatemala: explaining why in 2006 they called in the UN to bring foreign prosecutors to fight the infiltration by organized crime into the Guatemala legal system.